

Allied Inc.

M&A and Financial Advisory Firm

UNIQUENESS

Independent

Allied Inc. is an investment banking firm independent of any major financial group. With no conflict of interest or convoluted internal procedures such as those of large investment banks, we can concentrate on enhancing the client's corporate value and providing timely services. Allied Inc. is comprised of a small number of highly experienced professionals and has a network of outside partners with whom to coordinate in response to the client's needs.

International

Both of our Representative Directors have extensive experience in investment banking at major international financial institutions, with abundant experience in cross-border M&A transactions. Allied Inc., while independent, maintains wide domestic and overseas networks and is fully able to provide effective and efficient services for cross-border transactions at quality levels equal to those of the services for domestic transactions.

Transparent

Allied Inc. clearly delineates the scope of services extended to clients. We provide services exactly tailored to their needs and maintain a clear and understandable fee schedule.
